

Boomerang

Contributed by Mel Vandergrif

Coyote, trickster, little mystery,

I plead for balance!

Wrap me in enchanted mist-

Watch over this endeavor

Teach me tricks, ease my woes assist my mind in seeing the path.

Dust me with the essence of your magic;

And allow my growth to manifest!

Blessing and prayer offered

My mind filled with thoughts

I let it go

I watched it soar

High it floated out of sight invisible to my eye

yet

physical law still prevails

I knew it was still out there

so I sometimes wonder where it did eventually go and also about those things it passed along the way

Did someone else need this lesson?

And was my letting go

A needed gift?

Will my sharing be the magic

That will allow another letting go?

Coyote Magic, curious boomerang whose hands is it in today
